GENERAL CONDITIONS (BASED ON ACCME STANDARDS)

STANDARD 1: Independence

This activity is for scientific and educational purposes only and will not promote any specific proprietary business interest of the Commercial Interest.

STANDARD 2: Resolution of Personal Conflicts of Interest

SEFC is responsible for all decisions regarding the control the content of the education activity, including the identification of educational needs, determination of educational objectives selection and presentation of content, selection of all persons and organizations that will be in a position to control the content of the CME activity, selection of education methods, and the evaluation of the activity.

STANDARD 3: Appropriate Use of Commercial Support

SEFC will make all decisions regarding the disposition and disbursement of the funds from the Commercial Interest. The Commercial Interest will not require SEFC to accept advice or services concerning teachers, authors, or participants or other education matters, including content, as conditions of receiving this exhibit fee. All commercial funds associated with this CME activity must be given with the full knowledge and approval of SEFC. No other payment shall be given to the director of the activity, planning committee members, teachers or authors, joint sponsor, or any others involved with the educational activity.

STANDARD 4: Appropriate Management of Associated Commercial Promotion

Arrangements for commercial exhibits or advertisements cannot influence planning or interfere with the presentation, nor can they be a condition of the provision of commercial support for CME activities. Product-promotion material or product-specific advertisement of any type is prohibited in or during CME activities. The juxtaposition of editorial and advertising material on the same products or subjects must be avoided. Live (staffed exhibits, presentations) or enduring (printed or electronic advertisements) promotional activities must be kept separate from CME. Promotional material cannot be displayed or distributed in the education space immediately before, during or after a CME activity. Commercial interests may not engage in sales or promotional activities while in the space of the CME activity. The commercial interest may not act as the agent providing a CME activity to learners, e.g., distribution of self-study CME activities or arranging for electronic access to CME activities.

Accredited CME Provider

STANDARD 5. Content and Format without Commercial Bias

The content or format of a CME activity or its related materials must promote improvements or quality in healthcare and not a specific proprietary business interest of a commercial interest. Presentations must give a balanced view of therapeutic options. Use of generic names will contribute to this impartiality. If the CME educational material or content includes trade names, where available trade names from several companies should be used, not just trade names from a single company.

STANDARD 6. Disclosures Relevant to Potential Commercial Bias/Relevant financial relationships of those with control over CME content SEFC will ensure that the source of support from the commercial interest either direct or “in-kind” is disclosed to the participants, in program brochures, syllabi, and other program materials and again at the time of the activity. ‘Disclosure’ must never include the use of a trade name or a product-group message.

The Commercial Exhibitor agrees to abide by all requirements of the ACCME Standards for Commercial Support of Continuing Medical Education.
